Memo No. 1261 / ST-2
Panchkula, dated the 16.06.2017

Subject: Restructuring of the department in view of implementation of GST: Administration of NON-GST Goods.

Memo

On the above cited subject, with the roll out of GST in the Country from 1st July 2017, it has been decided by the Govt. that the administration of NON-GST Goods i.e. Petroleum Crude, High Speed Diesel, Motor Spirit (commonly known as petrol), Natural Gas, Aviation Turbine Fuel and Liquor fit for human consumption, except retail outlets of Diesel and Petrol, will be supervised/monitored and looked after by Dy. Excise and Taxation Commissioners (Excise) and officers/officials working under their control, w.e.f. 01.07.2017, under the provisions of HVAT/CST Acts and Rules framed thereunder and other Acts, if applicable. The dealers, covered under the above categories, would continue filing e-returns, e-payment of tax and other payments as per existing procedures and facilities.

It is also informed that regarding the above mentioned issues, the Dy. Excise and Taxation Commissioners(Excise) and the officers/officials working under their control, after 01.07.2017, will seek guidance from the Addl. Excise and Taxation Commissioner(Tax) in the Head Office looking after the overall supervision of the above commodities.
